Build a better summer with our Reader's BINGO!

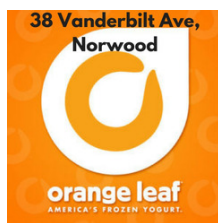

Reader's BINGO is open to everyone high school-aged or older. Any books you read this summer can be included on your BINGO sheet. For BINGO, count any books you read in June, July, and August.

Each finished row (a BINGO!) equals one entry. Fill in the reverse-side of this sheet to enter the raffle for gift certificates provided by the generous local sponsors listed below.

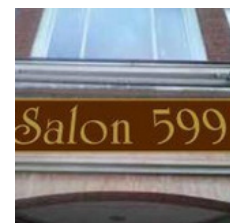

Completed BINGO sheets can be submitted to Nancy Ling in Outreach or Liz Reed in Reference. Completed sheets must be returned by noon on Friday September 1.

You can also enter to win weekly prizes by submitting entries for every book you read. Visit our website or the Circulation Desk to learn more; log books for weekly prize drawings starting Friday June 23.

Feel free to double dip with both Reader's BINGO and weekly prize entries! However, a single title can only be counted once on the BINGO sheet; don't enter the same title on more than one square.

True Value
