

March 2020 Morrill Musings

An Insider's Look at the Boston Marathon

Monday, March 30 at 7:00 pm

Meet local bestselling author and 23-time Boston Marathon runner Paul Clerici as he gives us the scoop on the most famous road race in history. Author of "Boston Marathon History by the Mile" and "Images of Modern America: the Boston Marathon," Clerici will talk about the beginnings of the race in Ashland, the year in which a train cut through the course in Framingham, the Scream Tunnel at Wellesley College, the Johnny Kelley statue in Newton, the various finish lines in Boston and more. Autographed copies of his books will be available to purchase. The program is funded by the Friends of the Library.
