Did you know?

The Friends always offer books for sale in the library lobby.

We take book donations!

Bring books and DVDs in good condition to the library (no more than 2 boxes/bags at once please!) We do not accept encyclopedias, outdated materials, VHS or cassettes.

Who are the Friends?

The Friends of the Morrill Memorial Library are a non-profit group of volunteers who fundraise and promote public awareness of the services and programs of the library.

Through their fundraising, the Friends preserve, enhance, and grow the resources of the library. The Friends support the ability to purchase materials and fund cultural and educational programs that enrich the Norwood community.

Why be a Friend?

- Volunteer and connect with other library lovers.
- Help the library with needs outside of its regular operating budget with a tax deductible contribution.
- Recommend library programs and activities.
- Get sneak preview access to biannual book sales.
- Enjoy a sense of ownership; your membership supports library resources and events!
